AUCTION SALES ... Future Days. LARGE SALE OF VALUABLE LAND IN THE COUNTY OF HANOVER.—By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Hanover county, entered on the 17th day of February 1877, in the chancery suit of Parsley's administrator vs. Gaines's administrator and als., the undersigned, special commissioners named in said decree, will offer for sale at public auction, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY the 26th day of September next, at 12 M., FIVE HUNDRED AND NINETY-THREE ACRES of that valuable farm known as "POWHITE," the property of the late Dr. William F. Gaines. This land is situated on the Chickahominy swamp about eight miles from the city of Richmond, in the famous trucking region of Hanover, immediately on the Craighton road, and consists of hill-land and a large quantity of second flats suitable for all kinds of vegetables, as well as corn, wheat, and oats, and the residue in river low-grounds. There is upon this land one SMALL DWELL-ING-HOUSE, a very fine brick barn, a brick stable, and a large wood harn, and several smaller buildings and sheds, with sufficient wood for the use of the farm.

There will be a division of this land into two or ARGE SALE OF VALUABLE LAND and a large wood hard sufficient wood for the use of the farm.

There will be a division of this land into two or three small farms before the day of sale, a plat of which division may be seen at the law-office of George P. Haw, Richmond, Va.; and Mr. William Gaines, who lives near by, will take pleasure in showing the farm to persons desirous of examining it before the day of sale.

The neighborhood is good and healthy, and convenient to a mill, shops, and churches. The undersigned with confidence assert that it is seldom such a fine body of land is upon the market.

TERMS: Cash enough to pay the cosis of this suit and the expenses of sale—probably $300; and the residue in three equal instalments at one, two, and three years from the day of sale, the purchaser to give notes with a good endorser for the deferred payments, with interest added, and the title retained until all the purchase-money has been fully paid; but the purchaser, if he shall so desire, may pay one third of the purchase-money in cash, and the residue in three equal instalments at one, two, and three years from the day of sale, for which notes may be given without an endorser.

formerly owned by Mr. James B. Jones. It contains ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND THIRTY-TWO AND THREE QUABTER ACRES (more or less), and is situated in the bend of the river just below Alken's landing and opposite to Deep Bottom and Curl's Neck. About 500 acres is reclaimed marsh-land, as rich as land can be, and for forty years before the war was cultivated every year in oorn, yielding enormons crops without at all lessening its fertility. During the war the bank gave way, and the land remained under water for several years; but it has since been reclaimed, and is now very productive. With small additional outlay it may be made perfectly secure against the tides, and will then yield as heavily as any land in Virginla.

There are about 200 ACRES of very superior lay it may be made perfectly see and will then yield as heavily as any land in Virginia.

There are about 200 ACRES of very superior SECOND LOW-GROUNDS, excellent for grass and the cereals. The balance of the cleared land is very susceptible of a high degree of improvement, and there are, about 700 ACRES in WOOD and TIMBER of good quality.

The river encloses the estate nearly all around, and about one half a mile of fence will enclose at least 800 acres; cross-fences may be made at small cost, so as to farnish all the enclosures that could be desired.

There are, say, FIVE HOUSES suitable for tenants, and extensive barns, stables, &c.

This is said to be one of the most productive right hands can doubtless be made very profitable.

About 830% acres of the tract are subject to a deed of trust, securing about $4.000, which has priority over the deed under which this sale will be made, but it is intended to pay off said debt in full out of the proceeds arising from this sale, and to obtain a full release of the deed securing the same. TERMS: One fourth cash; the balance in equal instalments at one, two, three, and four years, with interest at six per cent, per annum, payable annually, for negotiable notes, secured by a deed of trust on the property, or all cash at the option of the purchaser. The purchaser will be entitled to enter into possession as soon as the terms of sale shall be complied with.

Persons desiring to examine the property or to attend the sale may go by the river steamer which plied with.

Persons desiring to examine the property or to attend the sale may go by the river steamer which leaves the city on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fricays, at 6 o'clock A. M., and will land passengers on the fine wharf at Woodson's.
